REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In independent claims 1, 12, 23, and 25 directed towards a method, a system, and an article of manufacture, the following features taken in combination with the remaining limitations of the independent claims are not found in and or are not obvious in view of the prior art of record, giving the terminology "bypassing the second memory device" the scope of meaning as disclosed in the Specification, page 6, lines 10-15, and page 7, lines 12-15,

Claim 1,

"accessing the requested data in the first memory device and bypassing the second memory device to execute the request in response to determining not to fetch the requested data from the first memory device to cache in the second memory device";

Claims 12 and 23,

"access the requested data in the first memory device and bypassing the second memory device to execute the request in response to determining not to fetch the requested data from the first memory device to cache in the second memory device";

and further, in the following claim directed to an article of manufacture, the terminology "article of manufacture" is interpreted as having the scope of meaning as disclosed in the Specification, page 8, lines 1-7,

Claim 25,
